

Creative Industries Production Manager

Duration:

18-24 months

Level:

Level 7 Qualification

Training Covered:

- End to End Production and the role of the Production Manager in the process
- Managing the post-production process
- Effective planning for a production including logistics and resources
- Financial control and managing budgets
- Managing health and safety on set, on location and in the office
- Legal and regulatory responsibilities of productions
- Analysing and evaluating progress in order to provide reports
- Understanding UK and foreign film and TV tax incentives and relief
- Foreign film and all the relevant logistic and regulatory requirements
- Understanding deliverables: branding, language, versioning etc

In addition to the technical skills, this apprenticeship covers the following soft skills:

- Communication skills
- How to manage a team and motivate colleagues
- Conflict resolution and managing difficult situations
- Presentation skills
- Persuasion and influencing skills

Training Method:

Delivery is through a mixture of classroom learning, online learning, self-reflective study, practical exercises and projects and assignments.

Who is Eligible?:

This apprenticeship is for people with a minimum of 4 years' experience in the industry. They will have already worked in the media in a junior or entry level role and will be ready to take the next step in the Production Management pathway.

Typical Job Outcome:

Production Manager, Stage Manager, Line Producer, Post-Production Supervisor, Post Producer, Bookings Manager.

Typical Next Steps Career Path:

Production Executive, Head of Production